

Dr. Ahmed Al-Hadi is Assistant Professor in Accounting. He has PhD from Curtin University, Australia, and master's in accounting information system from Deakin University Australia, and bachelor's in accounting form Sultan Qaboos University. His interest of research focuses on corporate accounting and finance, corporate governance and disclosures. He published many highly ranked journals and with good experience in government consultancy. He also a member in different government committees, and boards.